IN THE POLICE COURT.

Two Burdick Women and Frank Potter Pay Fines for Immorality.

In the police court Friday morning the three persons arrested at 24 Bank street on Thursday night were brought before Judge Shea. Stella E. Burdick, aged 35, Mrs. Sarah Burdick, aged 32, and Frank Potter. They were charged with living in a house of ill fame. Stella pleaded not guilty. Mrs. Burdick not guilty of living or residing in a house of ill fame, and Frank Potter not guilty of frequenting a house of ill fame. Several witnesses were called who testified to seeing strange men there and of hearing bad language. Captain Richmond said he had warned the Burdicks once before making the raid. Both the Burdicks refused to testify in their own behalf, but Potter took the stand. Among other things he said he got out of Toland jail three weeks ago. He had spent one week at Clark's Corners and two in town. Judge Shea found all three guilty as charged and imposed a fine of $25 and costs on Stella, amounting to $32.50; $10 and costs on Mrs. Burdick, amounting to $17.50, and $15 and costs on Potter, amounting to $22.50. All three paid.
